DECISION and ORDER

Currently before the Court, in this pro se prisoner civil rights action filed by Ederick Fabrizio (“Plaintiff”) against the three above-captioned employees of the New York State Department of Corrections and Community Supervision (“Defendants”), is United States Magistrate Judge Miroslav Lovric’s Report-Recommendation recommending that Defendants’ motion for summary judgment be granted with respect to Plaintiff’s excessive force and retaliation claims against Defendants Rielly and Oliver and denied with respect to Plaintiff’s retaliation claim against Defendant Laster. (Dkt. No. 69.) Neither party has filed an objection to the Report-Recommendation, and the deadline by which to do so has expired. (See generally Docket Sheet.)

After carefully reviewing the relevant papers herein, including Magistrate Judge Lovric's thorough Report-Recommendation, the Court can find no clear-error in the Report-Recommendation:¹ Magistrate Judge Lovric employed the proper standards, accurately recited the facts, and reasonably applied the law to those facts. As a result, the Report-Recommendation is accepted and adopted in its entirety for the reasons set forth therein.

ACCORDINGLY, it is

ORDERED that Magistrate Judge Lovric's Report-Recommendation (Dkt. No. 69) is ACCEPTED and ADOPTED in its entirety; and it is further ORDERED that Defendants' motion for summary judgment (Dkt. No. 60) is GRANTED with respect to Plaintiff's excessive force and retaliation claims against Defendants Oliver and Rielly (who are terminated from this action), and DENIED with respect to Plaintiff's retaliation claim against Defendant Laster.

¹ When no objection is made to a report-recommendation, the Court subjects that report-recommendation to only a "clear error" review. Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b), Advisory Committee Notes: 1983 Addition. When performing such a "clear error" review, "the court need only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation." Id.; see also *Batista v.
